Manresa's fall film series offers the unique opportunity to watch selected films as an act of contemplative prayer and self-reflection. Through the lens of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola, we will use this contemporary art form along with St. Ignatius' insight into the power of imagination toward the revelation of ourselves, others and God.

Prior to each meeting, you will view the assigned film from the comfort of your own home using a streaming service. Handouts will be provided, and we will join other participants via Zoom to share our thoughts and hear how others were impacted by the film and reflective exercises.
